Macy's is excited to celebrate the third year of giving with Becca's Closet, a nonprofit organization that donates formal dresses to high school girls who are unable to purchase them for homecoming, military ball, and prom. For every regular-priced prom or social dress purchased in-store and on macys.com on Saturday, March 30, Macy's will donate a new prom dress, ranging from $59 to $399, up to 5,000 dresses, to Becca's Closet to give to a girl in need. Customers will also receive an invitation with dress purchase to book an appointment to have a free prom make-up session. Macy's partnership with TLC's Say Yes to the Prom is also returning for the third year, kicking off the eighth annual Say Yes to the Prom to create the ultimate prom shopping experience for 1,000 underserved and deserving students across the country. Students in five cities, including Silver Spring, MD, Knoxville, TN, Los Angeles, Denver, and New York City, were given one-on-one style sessions with Monte Durham of TLC's "Say Yes To The Dress: Atlanta," who helped students find the perfect dress, tuxedo, and accessories from a selection of 2,500 donated dresses from Macy's.

Macy's has the largest assortment of styles across dresses, beauty, and accessories and the experts at Macy's Fashion Office have curated a one-stop shop for incredible style to make party-goers feel their best on prom night. Check out some of the season's key trends below.

Dresses

Revelers can shop Macy's incredible selection of fashion-forward dresses that celebrate individuality and personal style. Turn heads in the latest prom trends with created for Macy's collections like Say Yes to the Prom, featuring everything from edgy two-piece sets to classic princess shapes. Romantic details like ruffles, tiered tulle, and feminine florals are perfect for feeling like a princess (or prom queen) for the night. For an old Hollywood vibe with a little edge, try something more fitted or rock metallics, allover beading, lamé, and iridescence. Hues of pink will rule prom, from hyper-bright to barely there blush to the prettiest shades of peach, there's a pink for every girl. The key to standing out comes down to unexpected styling. Leather motos, denim jackets, and sneakers are not just for everyday wear when paired with tulle and sequins – the look is next-level cool.

Accessories

Add flair to the perfect dress with bold shoes, jewelry, handbags, and hair accessories. For some added sparkle, it's all about earrings with a statement, including elongated drops and extra-long silhouettes with crystal or pearl details. Hit the dance floor with party-ready platform heels. Show some personality with creative takes on clutches like geometric shapes or shimmering crystal detailing. For the finishing touch, gorgeous hair accessories like combs, headbands, or pins will make an updo extra special.

Beauty Trends

Make prom night one to remember with Macy's red carpet-inspired beauty looks. For a low-key boho vibe, stick to earthy eye palettes, peach lips, natural brows, and hair. The ultra-feminine good girl pairs a drama-worthy gown with soft pinks on the eyes, lots of lashes and a dewy complexion. For the rule breaker, experiment with smoky bright jewel tones on the eye. For a classic Hollywood look, go for a cat-eye and a bold lip. Lastly, embrace a 90's supermodel vibe with a bronzed complexion, a smoky eye, and nude gloss on the lips. Don't forget to take off the night with the newest trend in skincare – double cleansing. An oil-based cleanser will melt off makeup at first pass, followed by a water-based cleanser to remove all remaining impurities.
